Leaving the Scene of a Personal Injury Accident

On May 6, 2022 at 7:44 pm, two pedestrians were struck by a vehicle near the intersection of N. Rand Rd. and Williams Dr. The offending vehicle, a dark colored, mid-sized SUV with tinted windows, possibly a Lincoln MKX, fled southbound on N. Rand Rd. towards IL Route 53.

One of the victim pedestrians sustained life-threatening injuries and was transported to Lutheran General Hospital in Park Ridge.

During the crash investigation, Palatine police detectives identified the driver of the offending vehicle as 61-year-old Gregory G. Kelley of the 4100 block of W. Adams St. in Chicago. On May 10, 2022, Kelley was arrested and charged with Failure to Report an Accident Involving an Injury, a class 2 felony.

On May 11, 2022, Kelley was taken to the Cook County Third District Courthouse in Rolling Meadows and appeared before Judge Mandeltort where his bond was set at $25,000D, which requires him to post 10% to be released from custody. His next court date has been set for June 3, 2022, at 9:00 am in Room 108 in Rolling Meadows.
