ATTEMPTED FIRST DEGREE MURDER

On October 19, 2022 at approximately 10:30 pm, Palatine Police officers responded to E. Dundee Rd and N. Frontage Rd for a report of shots fired. Responding officers spoke to the victims who stated that while driving, their vehicle had been shot by another motorist. Damage to the victim's vehicle was consistent with having been struck by gunfire. Palatine Police Forensic Technicians were called to the scene to process evidence.

On November 10, 2022, the Palatine Police arrested 20-year-old Arturo Gomez-Quijano, of the 400 block of Elm Dr. in Wheeling. After reviewing the facts of the case with the Cook County State's Attorney Office, Gomez-Quijano was charged with two counts of Felony Attempted First Degree Murder. Gomez-Quijano has been transported to the Leighton Criminal Court Bldg. at 2600 S. California in Chicago for a bond hearing.
